What Is Going On Tonight.

Canton Willimantic No. 2, P. M. 1, O. P. meets at 8:30 Main street.

Fire that started from unknown cause is a clothes store at the home of Arthur H. H. of No. 60 Park street, caused a loss of several hundred dollars, most of which was in wearing materials. The alarm was rung in at 1:15 o'clock from No. 27, corner of South Park and West Park streets and Engine Company No. 1 and Hook and Ladder Company No. 1 responded. The blaze was quickly extinguished by chemicals. The result was a loss of about $150 o'clock.

The traffic situation on North street, between Main street and Valley street, has attracted the attention of the common council and it is probable that something will be done to improve the situation. Motorists have complained that the city regulation which permits parking on both sides of that street has resulted in increasing the danger of accidents. Business houses there that receive and send out goods by truck, have the truck backed up to the curb on one side of the street and an automobile is parked on the opposite side, there is but little room for another car to pass between them and there have been a number of slight collisions there. Thursday morning the Sabbath, Hebrew for the Feast of Weeks, will be observed in all congregations of the Jewish faith, Sunday, June 12th, and in the more orthodox churches on Sunday and Monday, June 12th and 13th. This festival is one of the three pilgrimages observed in ancient Bible times when the inhabitants of Palestine made pilgrimages to the holy temple at Jerusalem and there in vast numbers, gathered to celebrate the feast. In those days the ceremonial consisted in the offering of the first fruits and grains of the field, which were brought as a thanksgiving token for the new crop being harvested.

Following the smashing of two cars on the highway at Columbia Saturday night last, the owners who returned to the place the following day found their cars stripped of practically everything removable. Wednesday at Columbia, Robert E. Keeney, of Manchester, was charged with stealing the accessories and parts of the automobiles. He pleaded not guilty. Probable cause was found in the police station in this city Wednesday afternoon. Keeney was bound over to the next term of the Tolland county superior court, under bonds of $500.

John Gelinas, who was locked up in the police station in this city Wednesday afternoon, was charged with obtaining money under false pretenses from John P. of Hampton, pleaded guilty of the charge before Justice of the Peace William C. Oliver of Clark's corner. He was fined $1 and costs amounting to $27.51 and was given a jail sentence of thirty days.

The local police have been notified that Corporal William S. Casey of Company H, 36th Infantry, Camp Devens, has been missing since June 1st. They are asked to be on the lookout for him. The address given in this city was 26, 1847 Main street.

An old Methodist church, presented at the Willimantic Methodist church Wednesday evening by the Epworth League of the Willimantic Methodist church was enjoyed by a large audience. The cast numbered thirteen and a fine presentation was given. Incidental music was furnished by Francis Perkins on the saxophone, and Mrs. Hoff, pianist. Other features were songs by Adeline Hoff and instrumental solos by Mrs. Hoff and Anna Tillman. The characters of the play were:

Deborah Underhill, a mother in Israel, Cora E. Nye.
Walter Bill Pindle, leader of the choir, Clara T. Wood.
Miss Lewis, loving ancient plain sewing, Ruth M. Nye.
Isabel Simpson, the village belle, Ella Nye Perkins.
Gloria Perkins, as good as gold, Hattie Nye.
Suey Pindle, the widder's mite, Olive Frederickson.
John Underhill, the prodigal son, Francis W. Perkins.
Charles Underhill, the elder brother, Charles Redworth.
Brother John Ouskenbush, "Jerry," a merry heart, Walter Bill Pindle.
Enoch Bone, an outcast and wanderer, Charles Maass.
Quintus Todd, the county sheriff, Charles Maass.
Gloria Perkins, baby mine, Phoebe Squires.
The Village Choir—Sally Larkins, organist, Anna Tillman, Samantha Puffer, Rosa Wolfe, Elvora Higgins, Doris Dunshee, Lily Dns Hawkins, Adeline Hoff, Dorcas Milligan, Mahel Tillman, Mily Red Potter, Augusta Burkhamp.

Place—the village of Canton in northern New York.

The supper given Thursday afternoon and evening by members of the Junior class of the Willimantic State Normal and Training school on the lawn of the school, was well attended and a large sum was raised for the piano fund. The piano fund was started by the class of 1920, to purchase a piano for the use of the dormitory of the school, that is to be opened the coming fall.

district, is to be filled by the appointment of Raymond F. Gates, present chief clerk of the department. There has been no official announcement of the appointment but it is known that Mr. Gates has the backing of Mr. Eaton and that he is favorably regarded by State Treasurer G. Harold Gilpatrick, of Putnam who holds the appointing power under the law.

Treasurer Gilpatrick is said to be determined that the office shall not be turned into a political plum to be handed out as patronage and it is said that he is anxious to reward the efficient services of Chief Clerk Gates and to establish the principle of promotion for merit in the department. In order to accomplish this latter purpose, Treasurer Gilpatrick is understood to be ready to fill the position to be vacated by Mr. Gates from some of the other present employees in the department.

The decision of the state treasurer places a damper in the hopes of certain Fairfield county politicians who have been planning to obtain a place in the department of state agencies and institutions for a representative of that section. It is reported that a few days ago a conference was held at the capitol by the Fairfield county senators and representatives in the general assembly and that it was agreed to put forward Representative John J. Hill of Shelton as an aspirant for a position in the department.

Raymond F. Gates is the son of Charles A. Gates, sheriff of Willimantic county and a former state senator. His home is in Willimantic.
